CABLE NEWS.

Matthews, Home Secretary, Offers to Resign his Office.

The Cass Affair Creates Discontent Among Warm Supporters of the Ministry.

The Afghan Commission Making Definite Arrangements—Emperor William Confers an Honor—The Debate on the Crimes Bill.

The Crimes Bill.

LONDON, July 6.—Two nights will be allowed for debate on the third reading of the crimes bill, and if the opposition endeavors to prolong the discussion the government will move that cloture be applied.

The Cass Affair.

The conduct of the government over the Cass affair has caused discontent even amongst the warmest supporters of the ministry. The explanation made in the House of Commons was heard in the chilliest manner, except when he announced that the Lord High Chancellor would institute a thorough inquiry into the mattter. In consequence of the feeling in the Conservative party Matthews has offered to resign his office. The Home secretary has been requested, however, to remain in office until the close of the present session of parliament.

Will Matthews Resign.

Press associations say there is no good grounds for believing Matthews, the home secretary will not resign, notwithstanding the action of the House of Commons last night. The Pall Mall Gazette says: If Matthews were a man of honor and a gentleman this morning's paper would have announced that he had resigned, he crowned last night's ministerial career of almost continuous failure by exhibiting combined incapabilities almost unprecedented.

The Afghanistan Commission.

ST. PETERSBURG, July 6.—The president of the Afghanistan commission today visited Sir West Ridgeway, one of the English members of the commission, and will resume consideration of the boundary question on Saturday, and it is believed in official circles that a definite arrangement is to be reached.

German Pig Iron.

BERLIN, July 6.—Advices from Dormond say that Rhenish and Westphalian iron masters have decided not to alter the prices of pig iron.

An Honor Conferred.

Emperor William has conferred upon Count Hohenthal, plenipotentiary from Saxony, in Bundesrath, the order of the grand cross of Prussia. In a letter accompanying the distinction the Emperor says that after the last successful session of the Reichstag, to the results of which gratifying elections in Saxony, Germany, greatly contributed he felt a lively desire to give his satisfaction visible expression by conferring upon the delegate from Saxony this high honor.

German Measures in France.

The North German Gazette, referring to the French foreigners tax bill, says the moment seems to have arrived for Germany to consider whether the German measures which are being carried out in France should not in full reciprocal manner be enforced in Germany, especially in Alsace-Lorraine.

PORTLAND VS. AMITY.

A Splendid Game at Beacon Hill Won by the Portland Nine by a Score of 14 to 8.

A large crowd of people assembled at the ball grounds, Beacon Hill, yesterday afternoon to witness the match game between the Portland club and the Amity club of this city. There was unusual interest evinced in the game, and notwithstanding the recent victories of the Portland nine at Seattle, betting was nearly even before the game opened, though the Portland's became the favorites after the first innings was played.

The game opened at 4:30 o'clock, the Portland's to the bat and Connolly and Buchtel each scored. The Amities coming to the bat, one run was scored. At this stage of the game both clubs were getting warmed to the work before them and in the second innings some excellent playing was noticed. The Portland's coming in, Glendenning lead off with a base hit and made first base. Lee followed with a "sky liner," which was prettily caught by Duck in centre field. Timmons came to the bat and was put out on second, and Glendenning scored on a pass ball. Connolly followed with a base hit, and stealing to second and third was brought in by a base hit by Buchtel. Bushby knocked a foul to Tiedeman, who made a good catch at third. Three men out, the Amities came to the bat. Brodrick knocked a ball to first and was put out. Kuna also hit to "short stop" and was put out on first. G. Gowen made a base hit and stole second. Tiedeman took first on balls, and Jackson fouled out, and the Amities retired without making a run. The Portland's coming in for the third innings, Neale was put out, and Mebus made first, and stole to third. Glendenning knocked a fly to center, which was splendidly caught by Duck. Smith was put out and the Portland's retired without scoring. The Amities also failed to score in the third innings. G. Gowen and N. Gowen being put out on first, and Duck out on strikes.

In the fourth innings Lee led off by knocking a ball in front of home made first, and second by a wild throw by Gowen, following up with a steal to third, and scored on a pass ball. Timmons was put out on first. Connolly made first by an error, stole to third and scored on a pass ball. Buchtel knocked a fly to Gowen, who caught it, and Bushby was put out on first.

The Amities tried hard to score in their fourth innings. Hannon hit to short-stop and was nicely put out on 1st. Borthwick made a safe hit and got to 1st and was put out while attempting to steal 3rd. Kuna knocked a fly to Bushby, who muffed it. G. Gowen made a base it and Kuna made 2nd. Tiedeman came to the bat and had a fine opportunity to bring Gowen and Kuna home, but went out on strikes.

In the fifth innings for the Portlands, Neal came to the bat, making a base hit, Smith following with a safe hit, and by a wild throw made 2nd, while Neal scored; Mebus knocked an easy ball to pitcher and made 1st through an error and was put out on 3rd. Glendenning made 1st, stole to 2nd, and Lee was put out on 1st. Timmons also being put out on 1st. Thus two runs were scored in this innings. The Amities succeeded in scoring two more runs in the 5th innings on errors. Jackson made a base hit and succeeded in stealing to 3rd; G. Gowen also made a base hit, and both he and Jackson came in on a pass ball, Duck struck out, N. Gowen knocked a fly to Neal, who made an excellent catch, which play he followed by muffing a fly from Hannon. Borthwick was caught out on a fly by Connolly.

The game looked rather discouraging for the Amities when the Portlands came in for their sixth innings, and bets of $20 to $2 were offered in favor of the Portlands.

Connolly came to the bat and took 1st on balls. Buchtel made a base hit and Connolly made 3rd; Bushby followed with a safe hit by which both Connolly and Buchtel scored. Neal knocked a fly to Jackson, who gracefully took it in, and Bushby scored. Smith was caught out on a fly to Borthwick, and Mebus knocked a "liner" to pitcher which was splendidly caught by Gowen.

The sixth innings for the Amities resulted in a failure to score, Kuna, Geo. Gowen and Tiedeman being put out successively on 1st.

In the seventh innings the Portlands also failed to score, Glendenning, Lee and Timmons being put out on 1st.

The Amities did some good batting in their seventh innings and raised their score amid the cheering from the crowd. Jackson was put out by a fly to Smith, G. Gowen reached 1st by an error by Connolly and stole to third on a passed ball. Duck was caught out on fly by Bushby; N. Gowen made a fine two-base hit bringing in G. Gowen and scoring himself on a passed ball. Hannon knocked a fly to Neal, which was muffed. Borthwick made a base hit and brought Hannon home. Kuna made a safe hit and Borthwick who had stolen to third, scored, and Kuna also scored through a wild throw by Lee. Geo Gowen was caught out by Buchtel.

The Portlands did some excellent batting in their eighth innings. Connolly took first on a dead ball. Buchtel was splendidly caught out by Jackson; Bushby knocked a fine ball to centre and brought in Connolly, being afterwards put out on second; Neal made a safe hit stole third and scored on a pass ball; Smith took first on a dead ball and was brought in by a base hit by Mebus; the innings closed by Glendenning being caught out on a fly by N. Gowen.

On the eighth innings of the Amities the Portlands changed from Lee to Bushby for pitchers, which move gave them the game as he is a splendid pitcher, throwing a most difficult and perplexing ball, and the Amities failed to score. The ninth innings was uneventful, neither club scoring. Duck made a fine catch in centre which was loudly applauded.

Much credit is due T. Baker, the umpire, for his fair and impartial decisions. The scorers were J. W. Beveridge and J. T. Fee.

In the evening the visiting club was entertained at Denny's hall by a dance which was enjoyed by a large number of people.

The following is the score, by which it will be observed that the Portland nine won the game by six runs:

MARINE.

Bark Robert Kerr took 1,100 tons of Wellington coal for the Parthia.

Ship St. Charles, Parington, completed her cargo of Wellington coal yesterday.

Ship Enos Soule will finish loading lumber at Tacoma for River Platte in about two weeks.

Bark Samoset, seventeen days from San Francisco for Tacoma to load lumber, arrived Tuesday.

Ship T. F. Oakes will complete her cargo of coal at Nanaimo early next week and sail for San Francisco.

The tug Pilot arrived in the harbor at 5 o'clock last night from the cape, having towed the bark Earl Derby, lumber laden for Valparaiso from Hastings, to sea.

The Norwegian bark Rosenius, twenty-three days from Tahiti, has arrived at Port Townsend. The Rosenius sailed from Newcastle, N. S. W., March 4th for Puget Sound via the Fiji Islands. On the morning of the 7th of March, at 3 o'clock, Captain Saveningsen, who was on deck, dropped on his hands and knees and began crawling along to the poop deck where he was caught by the coat by a seaman, which was torn from his back and he jumped overboard. A boat was lowered and search was made in vain. For three or four days prior to this event he had been talking in a wild and wandering manner. The mate assumed command of the vessel and brought her safely to Port Townsend, where she was turned over to Captain O. Hoyer, who arrived there last Friday, having been dispatched from Norway by the vessel's owners, to take command of her when she arrived. The Rosenius lost a good charter by not arriving prior to June 30th. She has, however, secured another charter to load lumber on the Sound for Melbourne.

There is great consternation among the residents in the neighborhood. At 12:30 a. m. all the available fire force in the battery are endeavoring to keep the fire from reaching the magazine and trumpeters are sounding the bugle as a signal of danger and for all hands to keep clear.

IRON FISHING SMACKS.

In a communication from Cochrane, Cooper and Schofield, iron ship builders, of Beverley, Yorkshire, Eng., the following remarks are made in regard to the newest appliances for fishing. Like all other shipping it would appear that iron and steam are gradually replacing wood and sail, and a few years more will see the former in use in every department of sea commerce. The firm states that "having observed in the Fishing Gazette that Mr. John Dyke, Liverpool, was appointed by your government to find out the most improved appliances for fishing, we wrote to that gentleman, and he advises us to make our business known through you. We make a specialty of building iron fishing smacks and iron steam trawlers. We built six iron steam trawlers last year, all of which are doing very well, paying from twenty-five to thirty per cent; in fact we are persuaded that the steam fishing vessels will supersede the sailing ones just the same as they have done all through the merchant service. These vessels are fitted out with trawling gear on both sides and large steam winch for heaving in the gear. One of these vessels will go out from Hull or Grimsby, will be out about a week and come in with, on an average, £150 worth of fish. We could build and fit out one of these vessels, 100x20x11, with engines to drive her fully 10 knots, for the sum of £3,650, delivered here with all fishing gear on board ready for fishing. We understand that fish are abundant off Vancouver's Island."

Although our fishing interests are yet in their infancy, yet the government expedition last year brought their value and extent into prominence and the prospecting trip to be made this year may result in the furnishing of such data as will induce capitalists to venture into business on an extended scale. There have been inquiries from prominent eastern fishing men as to openings here, and a number will personally investigate the field this year. While it may be a little premature to suggest any definite time of action, the fact that the fishing interests would undoubtedly have their headquarters in this city should induce our business men to devise some scheme whereby a company could be formed to prosecute fishing and fish curing, and thus inaugurate what must in a few years become a most important industry. The character of the coast, the strong currents and variable winds of the west of Vancouver Island, and the undoubted advantage of steam propelling power over sail, would seem to indicate that such a vessel as described above would be a desirable class of craft for the work and if a scheme for fishing is consummated it would be wise to gain further information in regard to them, so that any project might be begun under the most favorable circumstances.

MUNICIPAL COUNCIL.

The regular weekly meeting of the city council was held last night.

Present—His Worship Mayor Fell, and Couns. Styles, Harris, Bradon, Pearse, Higgins, Vigelius and Barnard.

Aldermen D. Oppenheimer and R. H. Alexander, of Vancouver, were present and were accommodated with seats near His Worship the Mayor.

COMMUNICATIONS.

From Drake, Jackson & Helmcken, calling attention to the state of Mrs. Lee's residence on Belleville street. Referred to street committee to report.

From Mr. H. P. Bell, stating that he had received Mr. Hendry and Mr. Mahood's report regarding the projected water-works, and asked that they discuss the matter with him.

Coun. Pearse criticized Mr. Bell's report, and concluded that if some things in it were as stated it was a most useless one.

Coun. Barnard claimed that as Mr. Bell was the consulting engineer it was only fair to grant his request and carry out what he suggested.

His Worship—Mr. Bell was not appointed consulting engineer. He wanted to know why did not Mr. Bell send in a report?

Coun. Pearse—Yes, why?

Coun. Barnard, seconded by Coun. Braden, moved that a meeting, such as desired by Mr. Bell, be called for Monday night at 8 o'clock.

Coun. Braden said Mr. Mahood had taken Mr. Hendry's figures, while Mr. Bell took his own.

His worship—Do you know that statement to be true?

Coun. Braden—Yes.

Coun. —arris objected to Mr. Bell's report being styled "useless." It was nothing of the kind; it was well worth careful study and a valuable document.

Coun. Barnard's motion was carried.

MONTHLY ACCOUNTS.

The accounts for the month of June aggregating $2839.66, were referred to the finance committee and ordered to be paid if found correct.

Coun. Harris said $100 had been spent in tracing drainage plans, and asked for an increase of $40 which would finish the work. Ordered to be paid.

REPORTS.

The street committee reported as follows: That a small sidewalk be laid on the east side of Blanchard street, from Pandora to Johnson ssreets; that a sidewalk be laid on the north side of Erie street, from St. Lawrence to Dallas road; that a box drain be laid in the ravine on the east side of Park road, one of the residents having promised that he will supply the lumber for the same, and that the usual notice be published in the newspapers to destroy thistles on their property.

The firewardens reported that the application of R. T. Williams for the altering of a building be not granted. Received and adopted.

Coun. Braden said Mr. Hargreaves had not been paid for his services. The clerk was ordered to communicate with him and settle the matter.

NOTICE OF MOTION.

Coun. Barnard gave notice of motion to introduce by-law 137 entitled "a by-law for regulating hacks" and for establishing a scale of charges for the use thereof.

Coun. Higgins said he believed the motion was unconstitutional.

After some irrelevant discussion Coun. Higgins said he thought the matter of the water works had been temporized with too long and should go before a capable engineer.

A little breeze sprung up which his worship good humoredly smoothed over.

His worship said he was sorry all the councillors had not gone to Vancouver and Tacoma. There was a hard feeling in Vancouver about this city, but like true Christians the people had forgiven all. The celebration was a grand success and worthily carried through. They are a set of jolly, good fellows and open-hearted hosts. He was surprised at the success achieved, the infant city having risen Phœnix-like from its ashes. (Applause.) The feeling between the sister nations had been greatly improved by the events at Tacoma. The reunion would do much in gathering together the bonds of international life. Sir William Wiseman was eulogized and his conduct highly praised. He was sorry he had to do it all by himself; he would have liked to have had Councillor Higgins with him, but he could say that many of our American cousins would come over (hear, hear) and visit us. He was not full himself and saw no one full—they just ate and drank like gentlemen, as much as was good for them. After some jocular remarks from councillors the meeting adjourned.

MAINLAND NEWS.

(News Advertiser.)

The bark Robert Kerr which lay for so many months anchored in the harbor, was brought into port yesterday morning by the tug Pilot from Nanaimo with a cargo of 1,600 tons of coal for the S. S. Parthia.

The engineers on the Capilano survey were compelled to stop work on Monday, as the forest fires in the vicinity of the line were too close. The party is now within a short distance of the proposed site for the reservoir.

(Columbian)

The sockeyes are appearing in great numbers in the river. One of Mr. Vianen's fishermen captured 82 in one net Sunday night.

"ERRARE HUMANUM EST."

TO THE EDITOR—Will you allow me a little space in your valuable paper to correct a slight misapprehension respecting our claims to "academic honors" which seems to have got afloat in Victoria? We are not, could not be, and, I need scarcely say, have never represented ourselves to be, "royal academicians," my husband being debarred from that honor by his nationality as a Frenchman, and I, alas! by my sex—no woman painter ever having been admitted to the membership of that august body with the exception of Angelica Kauffman, the friend and pupil of Sir Joshua Reynolds, the first president. But our names will be found in the Royal Academy catalogues as exhibiting in 1877, 1878, 1879, 1880, 1881 and 1882. Since the latter year we have been traveling in America and have not sent to the Royal Academy.

LONG AND SHORT HAUL.

Judge Deady's recent decisions in the United States circuit court is a most important and far reaching one. Section four of the interstate commerce act provides:

"That it shall be unlawful for any common carrier subject to the provisions of this act to charge or receive any greater compensation in the aggregate for the transportation of passengers or of like kind of property, under substantially similar circumstances and conditions, for a shorter than for a longer distance over the same line, in the same direction, the shorter being included in the longer distance." In studying this provision the question has been "what are substantially similar circumstances and conditions?"

In the construction of this clause has been involved the whole effect of the law. Judge Deady holds substantially that any point on a line of railway or either terminus thereof where there is competition, to or from, in the carriage of persons or property is not under similar circumstances and conditions, as compared with a point or points where there is no competition. The effect of this decision is to destroy utterly the main provisions of the interstate law as to competitive points. This opinion is rendered in the term of an instruction to the receiver of the Oregon and California railroad, which is subject to a cheap ocean competition. Going further, Judge Deady autherizes the receiver to "make a less rate for a long haul than a short one in conjunction with connecting lines or otherwise, whenever, by reason of competition with other lines or means of transportation, the same is necessary to enable the Oregon & California road to retain or acquire business. This judgment means the almost entire abolition of the Interstate Commerce Law, the only points now remaining being the requirement that all rates shall be reasonable, the abolition of the pass system and some minor regulations. Judge Deady's decision will be hailed on this coast with much delight since it saves the trouble of further appeal to the Interstate Commission.

INDIAN AFFAIRS.

On the item in the estimates of $78,425 for the Indians of this province in reply to Sir Richard Cartwright, the premier said that last year there were no industrial schools, as the government was only commencing the system in British Columbia and asks a vote of $17,250. Sir John said that there are two industrial schools to be established. The Indians of British Columbia are of quite a different race from those in the Northwest and in the east. There is a good deal of Mongol blood in them and they are more industrious and self-reliant than the Indians farther east; they work in the mines and on the railways, and are a hard-working people. They do not ask for anything but schools, and especially industrial schools, for some time. The government think it well to establish one industrial school on the Island of Vancouver and another on the mainland, after the fashion of the industrial schools which have been in successful operation for the last two or three years in the Northwest. He believed, and in fact was sure, that this experiment will be a very successful one, because they are a fine people with a promising future before them if their education is promoted. The one will cost $2,500 and will accommodate twenty-five pupils at a cost of $130 each per annum. On the mainland there will be two schools; the buildings will cost $5000 and the cost of teaching twenty-five pupils there will be $3,500. He fancied the Indians taught in the schools could be safely allowed to join their tribes. They would be secular.

In reply to Hon. Mr. Mills Sir John said in regard to Metlakahtla that the survey was made by Mr. O'Reilly some years ago. He believed it was made on the most liberal scale, and until late years no objection was made to that survey. There is a question which has arisen with which the government have nothing in the world to do. It is a question as to the title to the two acres at Metlakahtla which are claimed by the Anglican church—he supposed the Bishop may be considered the representative of it—he does not know how the statute stands, but that title is recognized by the government of British Columbia; they say that the Church of England has a title to these two acres that are disputed by Mr. Duncan, who poses as the representative of the Indians at Metlakahtla. That is a question with which the government could not interfere. The Indians built the church, but there is at this moment a division amongst the Indians themselves. There is not an inconsiderable minority of the Indians at Metlakahtla who are Anglicans and do not go with Mr. Duncan. Mr. Duncan and the majority, perhaps, acting under the idea of right, have interfered with that property. Mr. Duncan went there originally as a lay reader of the Missionary Society. He has been a man of great merit, of great administrative talent, of great enthusiasm, and he has been of great service among the Indians there; but he is a man, he feared, who cannot brook control of any kind. For some theological reason or other, he severed himself from the church of which he was a lay reader, and has established a religion of his own, perhaps as good as the religion that he left; but, at all events, he started a religious system of his own, and he resists the claim of the church, of which he was once a member and an officer, to this property. While he was a member of the church, of course he would defend the rights of the church. Now he has taken a different course. He was afraid there was a little of human ambition mingling with his desire for the advantage of the Indians. The Canadian government neither admits nor denies the claim of the Church of England to these two acres. They have not anything to do with it. All they want to do is to have the Indians living quietly on their reserve, and they would try to protect the Indians, and at the same time to prevent them from breaking beyond their bounds, and, under mistaken advice, become disturbers of the public peace.

Then, with respect to the reservation in the vicinity of Victoria, that is a very valuable property, and the Indians make no use of it at all; they are living there in the immediate vicinity of a large town in which there is a seafaring population. The intention of the government and of the department is to get the full value for the land, and out of the sale of that land to purchase in the first place an habitat for these Indians at a considerable distance away from the seductions of a town and the degradation which results both for men and women, and to fund the balance of the money, as has been done in the older provinces, for the benefit of the Indians. Mr. Baker said he thought that the reserve should no longer be an Indian reserve. It could be better used for the terminal point of the Victoria and Esquimalt railway. He should be very glad to see that reserve turned to some good purpose, and a more suitable one found for the Indians more remote from the city of Victoria. He hoped the leader of the government would have in view the offer that had been made for that reserve in the past, and see that the Indians get a fair price for that reserve and that a suitable one is purchased in place of it.

M. BOULANGER, who is, or was, one of the chief engineers of the Panama canal, recently delivered an address before the New York society of civil engineers, in which he took the most practically gloomy view of that project which has yet been exhibited. This official has evidently had a falling out with M. de Lesseps, and his statements should be taken with some degree of allowance. But with this matter fully taken into consideration, it is none the less evident that the enterprise is drifting into a desperate situation. The substantiated facts which M. Boulanger presents are of a most terrible nature. The natural difficulties that encumber the work are literally enormous, and constantly growing more serious. At one point the canal runs near a sliding mountain, from which clay and rocks are constantly pushing into the channel. This necessitates constant labor in one place, and there are other spots where the land shifting is nearly as bad. Not more than one-fifth of the undertaking has been completed; but this small portion of work has cost $200,000,000. As the cost per mile for the rest of the way will be fully as great as for the space already gone over, it follows that the finished canal will have required the expenditure of at least one billion dollars. Where all this money is coming from is a hard question even for M. de Lesseps. The effect on human life is represented as even more frightful. Sturdy negroes and the strongest of Central American Indians are employed as common laborers, but the climate is so terrible that over sixty per cent. of them die annually. The mortality among whites is about eighty per cent. Of seventy-two agents, engineers, etc., sent to Panama last year by the company only eleven are now fit for duty, the others being dead or completely disabled by malarial sickness.

◆

EMIN PASHA is still a personage in whom the civilized world has the greatest of interest. It seems that M. Wanga, the king of Central Africa, some time since took a fit of good nature, and allowed a small amount of supplies to reach the gallant explorer. At the same time, with or without his permission, several friendly Arabs with letters reached the coast. From these communications we learn the state of affairs almost to the first of the present year. In speaking of his hardship and the possibility of his being obliged to surrender, it may be noticed that the brave governor general adopts almost exactly the same tone that Gordon did a short time before the fall of Khartoum. In one respect his position is precisely the same as that of the noble Englishman. Emin writes that it would be an easy matter at any time for him to gather a few chosen men from his garrison and fight his way through the encompassing host. But nothing could induce him to abandon the force of about two thousand men who have loyally stood by him through all his trial. At present everything seems to depend upon the success of Stanley's relief expedition. It is impossible to estimate how far the successor of Livingstone has already progressed. But it is more than probable that the relief will be effected before the end of this month. There seems little prospect that Emin Pasha will leave the rich country that he has done so much toward developing. The regions about Lake Albert are described as marvellously prolific in valuable natural resources, and Emin declares it his intention to establish stations all through the more healthy districts. Before the late rebellion in the Soudan, equatorial Egypt was one of the two Egyptian provinces that was able to pay expenses and turn a surplus in the treasury, and according to De Junker the ivory now stored at headquarters must be worth several hundred thousand dollars.

LATE CANADIAN NEWS.

ONTARIO.

The body of George D. Morse, a well-known cattle dealer and ex-soap manufacturer, was found in Toronto bay at the foot of Berkley street. It is supposed he had accidentally fallen into the water.

Upon the application of Mr. Lash, Q.C., the court appointed the 2nd day of September, at Bowmanville, for the trial of the petition against the return of Hon. Edward Blake.

In the coming contest in North Renfrew the Conservatives confidently expect to gain the seat. The late Mr. Campbell had only a majority of 66 in the last election, and he was very popular in the county.

Three brothers named Moffatt, aged 12, 15 and 17 years, of Fenelon Falls, were drowned while in bathing in Burnt river.

QUEBEC.

Thomas Desormeau dit Cusson, was before the Montreal police court on an infamous charge, and committed for trial.

Vian, the ringleader of the revolt some time ago in the St. Vincent de Paul penitentiary, nearly succeeded in making his escape again. He was placed in irons.

NOVA SCOTIA.

The jury returned a verdict of $2,500 against Town Clerk A. M. Fraser, of New Glasgow, for slandering the character of Mrs. Brown.

A warm fight is expected in the Digby bye election, which takes place on the 16th prox. Messrs. Thompson and McLellan, it is understood, will take a hand in for the Conservative candidate."

NEW BRUNSWICK.

It is reported that Mr. Baird, the member for Queen's, has resigned his seat. Sir John said that he had no information on the subject, but if Mr. Baird has resigned it would be in a letter to the speaker of the commons.

SWINEFORD PLAYS POKER,

And Engages in Barroom Rows, an Alaskan Says.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 4.—One of the morning papers here prints this morning a long interview with ex-Collector French, of Alaska, on matters in that territory. French evidently has no love for Governor Swineford. After giving a statement of the many rumors that are brought against him, French sums up in this style:

"There is not a shadow of doubt that Governor Swineford does not maintain the dignity of his position. He is seen at all times of the day playing poker in open barrooms and quarreling with other members of the government over their respective winnings. Then they do not always quarrel over cards, but change off, and have unseemly rows over their dignities. What most bestirs the worthies up there is to go to congress, and they are always quarreling as to which one is most fitted for the office of representative when Alaska shall be represented. Swineford naturally thinks that he ought to go. The new district attorney says that he ought, and the collector says he is the only man who could do honor to the nation; and they get so heated in their arguments that they generally break up in a row. Why, the entire burden of Swineford's last message was that Alaska should be represented in congress!

"Still you know what Alaska really needs—operation of the United States land laws, for as it now stands no one can ever own a house and lot. There is no one to give authority for the sale of land. It also wants more mail facilities, a governor who can behave himself like a gentleman, and a small steamboat placed at the disposal of the marshal to carry out the orders of the court."

HAWAIIAN NEWS.

The King's Palace and Government Buildings Fortified.

The barkentine Discovery, Capt. J. Lee, 395 tons, fourteen days from Honolulu, has arrived at Seattle, and is waiting for orders.

Capt. Lee, in conversation with a reporter regarding the reported revolutionary movements in the Hawaiian Kingdom, said:

"The king's palace and government buildings are fortified with cannon. All the vessels arriving in Honolulu are carefully searched for arms and ammunition.

"The cause of the present anticipated trouble is occasioned by the king granting the exclusive privilege of importing opium into the islands to a wealthy Chinese firm. The population is about evenly divided regarding war. Those who have property desire peace, yet they do not countenance the king's actions.

"The United States gunboat Adams arrived in Honolulu June 18th, and it was currently reported that the officers were communicating with the shore by a telephone. Several other foreign war vessels were in port."

THE KING DENOUNCED.

The barkentine Scotch Lassie arrived at San Francisco from Honolulu on Monday. There were no developments in the Hawaiian affairs, but the strength of the feeling of hostility to the government is manifested by the outspoken terms, in which the Hawaiian Gazette denounces the king and his ministry. That paper in its issue of the 4th of June charges, editorially, that the king and his ministry have been guilty of accepting large bribes, and then actually swindling the unfortunates whom they had led into the illegal transactions. In another place it says: "A ruler is wanted who does not take bribes or will not condone or assist in the taking of bribes by others." Altogether the whole tone of the Gazette shows that there is a bitter feeling of discontent which may break out into a popular storm at any moment.

Enjoy Life.

What a truly beautiful world we live in! Nature gives us grandeur of mountains, glens and oceans, and thousands of means of enjoyment. We can desire no better when in perfect health; but how often do the majority of people feel like giving it up disheartened, discouraged and worn out with disease, when there is no occasion for this feeling, as every sufferer can easily obtain satisfactory proof, that Green's August Flower, will make them free from disease, as when born. Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint are the direct causes of seventy-five per cent. of such maladies as Biliousness, Indigestion, Sick Headache, Costiveness, Nervous Prostration, Dizziness of the Head, Palpitation of the Heart, and other distressing symptoms. Three doses of August Flower will prove its wonderful effect. Sample bottles, 10 cents. Try it. dw

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhœa, whether arising from the teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Be sure and ask for MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP, and take no other. d&w

"Totally Incorrect."

The statement in the Mainland Guardian that the minister of justice is an old schoolmate of Shearer, the British Columbia murderer recently respited, is said to be totally incorrect. Mr. Thompson never heard of Shearer until his case came before him officially.

Not Competing.

The Southern Pacific Company has no intention of meeting the Canadian Pacific's new round trip rates. T. H. Goodman, general passenger agent of that company, said that the road was not being fought by the Southern Pacific on passenger business, whatever they might do on freight business.

At Home Once More.

The balance of the Tacoma excursionists, about 160 in number, returned on the North Pacific yesterday, a tired looking lot. The sports they say have been sufficient to last them some time. All are profuse in their praises with regard to the way the Americans have of making visitors enjoy themselves.

The remains of the late Mrs. Andrews will be interred at Ross Bay Cemetery to-day. The funeral will take place from the residence, Yates street, at 11 o'clock, a.m.

The funeral of the late John Ramsey will be held this afternoon, and will leave Masonic Temple at 3 o'clock. p.m.

Tricky Chinamen.

The result of the examination of the certificates held by the Chinese arrivals on the Yosemite on Tuesday night is that three bogus papers were found. The holders will be detained until they pay the necessary $50, and if that is not forthcoming they will be compelled to return to the land of their birth.

From the West Coast.

Chas. Spring arrived from Clayoquot Sound on Tuesday, and reports matters slightly slack in that portion of the island. The old schooner Discovery, operated by Indians in the sealing business, was lost in the Straits a short time ago, and in a gale three canoes were lost by the schooner Ada. Several sealers have gone to the Behring's Sea, and a prosperous voyage was contemplated providing the United States government does not interfere.

The Higher Levels.

The steam pump which lately arrived from New York for the city was put in position yesterday at the electric light works. Power was obtained from the boilers of the electric works and water was forced all over the higher levels in copious supply. The thirsty ground drank of the welcome draught and the parched vegetation put on a vernal hue. The pump having proved satisfactory the use of the steam fire engine stationed on Fort street will be discontinued.

Police Court.

Andrew White who was charged with being in possession of smuggled opium, was discharged. The opium will be handed over to the customs.

Mrs. R. Green, summoned on a charge of killing chickens, did not appear and as the prosecuting witness was absent the charge was dismissed.

International Courtesy.

Captain James Dalgardno and Nelson T. Oliver, former branch pilots of Puget Sound, requested Mr. James G. Swan, secretary to the last board of pilot commissioners, at Port Townsend, to tender their services as pilots to the admiral to take the Caroline to Tacoma. The admiral expressed his thanks but said the ship would not require a pilot. We join with the Argus in the following remark: "The offer of services by Pilots Dalgardno and Oliver was simply an act of courtesy, which was acknowledged by the admiral in his courteous reply. We are pleased to notice the foregoing as an evidence of the friendly feeling between the people of Puget Sound and our neighbors of British Columbia."

The Postmaster-General Coming.

Mr. McLelan, postmaster-general, has gone to Nova Scotia. He will then return to Ottawa, prior to visiting Manitoba, the Northwest and British Columbia. It is understood that the principal object of his visit West is to perfect the mail service, which, though organized last summer in a great hurry, has afforded good satisfaction. Mr. McLelan also proposes to take steps towards reducing postal expenditures in the West, without however interfering with the efficiency of the service. On returning from British Columbia he will take steps towards establishing a parcel post service with the United States. Negotiations are now in progress towards organizing a similar service with the other principal colonies of the empire.

Sir William Wiseman's Speech.

The following is the Tacoma Ledger's report of Sir William Wiseman's speech at the Fourth of July celebration. Immediately following the firing of the Caroline's cannon, Governor Semple announced the presence of the gentleman and introduced him to the great crowd. Captain Wiseman, who is an admirable talker, said: "Mr. president, ladies and gentlemen, I am so pleased with my trip here, the manner in which your people have treated me, and their many acts of kindness, that I cannot refrain from thanking you in person for this great kindness which I have received. To make my feelings clear, I have been received about the same as Englishmen are always received in America, and the way I hope our cousins will receive you when you visit England. The ties between our countries have been growing stronger for years, and these gatherings serve to strengthen them. The day, I think, is not far distant when we shall share each other's joys and sorrows and feelings, and burn with one love without resentment." Three rousing cheers greeted the captain's address.

Matrimonial.

Honor Pupils—At the public examination of this school previous to the holidays, provincial honor cards were presented by Dr. Watt on behalf of the teacher to the following pupils: George Walker, for general proficiency; Jeanie Kelly, for deportment, and Mary House for punctuality in attendance.

A Welcome Guest.

"Mine host" Richards, of the Clarence, was made happy yesterday. A most welcome guest arrived and has, or will have in due course of time, the freedom of the house. He occupied both sides of the register and his nurse declares him to be a "jewel." If he emulates his sire he will grow up to be a good citizen and worthy fellow.

Rev. Mr. Wadman Coming.

Rev. Mr. Wadman was presented with a most felicitous address and accompanying testimonial on the occasion of his leaving St. John, N. B., to assume the pastorate of the Gorge road Methodist church. After remaining a week in St. Paul he will come on to Victoria, where his mission promises to be a successful one.

Resigned the Pastorate.

Rev. Mr. Barss has resigned the pastorate of the Baptist church, owing to ill-health, and will leave for his old home in Nova Scotia early in September, where he will spend a year endeavoring to recuperate. His departure is greatly regretted by his flock and the people generally, with whom he has become a great favorite.

Mr. Chisholm's Return.

The Guardian says that Mr. Donald Chisholm, M. P., arrived from the east on Monday and received a warm welcome from his friends and supporters. The train stopped at the C. P. N. Co.'s wharf and there a crowd was waiting to receive him, and there was another crowd at the railway station, and so this popular representative had two receptions in an hour.

Bulls for B. C.

Calgary Tribune: Messrs. Hull, Trounce & Co., have purchased the fine lot of Hereford and Aberdeen-Angus bulls, which Senator Cochrane brought from Hillhurst, Que., a short time ago. It is the intention of the purchasers to ship them to British Columbia, as none of these breeds have ever been taken to that country.

Raspberry Fete.

The ladies of the Reformed Episcopal church will hold a garden féte and rasberry festival on Saturday afternoon from 2 to 8 o'clock, Lady Douglas having kindly permitted them to use her spacious and beautiful grounds for that purpose. The féte which was held two weeks ago was a great success, but it is thought the coming one will surpass the first. Refreshments can be had on the grounds. Admission only 25 cents.

The End.

The Club Theatre has at last succumbed to the inevitable and it is currently stated that the proprietor is out a considerable amount. However, he owes a little money and as creditors find it difficult to make him pay up, what has been reported must be true. Several of the people connected with the place, including Frankie Whitcombe, left for the Sound on Tuesday morning, and the musicians are having a time in collecting back salaries.

Hastings Saw-Mill.

All hands in the above mill at Vancouver, with the exception of two or three, have been paid off and the mill closed down. It is learned that the old lease having expired the lessees do not see their way to renew at the old figure—$20,000 per annum; and it is hardly likely that other parties will care to take the plant, etc., at the rental named. This will throw a considerable number of men out of employment, which is a regrettable circumstance at a time when the labor market is so overstocked as at present.

An Eminent Lady.

Miss Kate Field, the distinguished American orator and writer, who has achieved a world-wide celebrity for her vigorous crusade against "Mormonism," that blot upon the civilization of the United States, has been visiting the Pacific coast for the first time, and sailed on Monday last for Alaska by the steamer Ancon. Miss Field is no less renowned for her artistic and literary success than for her oratorical triumphs, and has among her treasures of thought a lecture styled "An Evening with Dickens," which has received the most flattering notices from the English as well as the American press. Her musical monologue, "Eyes and Ears in London," is also spoken of in the most favorable and enthusiastic manner. It forms an entertainment that is decidedly recherche and altogether delightful. There is some talk of having Miss Field deliver these lectures in Victoria on her return from Alaska, about July 23rd or 24th, and we hope that sufficient inducements will be offered to decide the little lady to let them be heard here. Miss Field will be the guest of Mr. D. R. Munro during her stay in Victoria.

SUPREME COURT.

[Before Sir M B. Begbie, C. J., and a Special Jury.]

Findlay, Durham & Brodie vs. Berrill and Boscowitz.—This was an action to recover the sum of $16,000 odd alleged to be due by the defendant Berrill to plaintiffs upon the plant and machinery of a cannery and sawmill at Naas river. The defendant Boscowitz had been added to the suit upon the alleged ground of his having retained possession of the plant as security for the payment of $4,000 claimed by him as shipping charges thereon. The case, which lasted all day, resulted in a non-suit being ordered in the case against Boscowitz, and under direction of the court, the jury returned a verdict for the amount claimed against the defendant Berrill, subject to an account being taken.

Mr. T. Davie, Q. C., instructed by Mr. Drake, for the plaintiffs; Mr. Walls for the defendant Boscowitz; Mr. Hett for the defendant Berrill.

MANITOBA'S GOVERNOR.

Arrival of the Hon. J. C. Aikins and Party in Victoria.

Hon. J. C. Aikins, lieutenant-governor of Manitoba, and party, consisting of Mrs. Aikins, Miss Somerset and L. C. Clarke, secretary to the governor, arrived on the Yosemite last evening and registered at the Driard.

The Hon. James Cox Aikins was born in the township of Toronto, county Peel, Ontario, March 30, 1823. He was educated at Victoria college, Cobourg, and entered public life in 1854, by representing his native county in the Canadian Assembly, which he continued to do until 1861. In the following year he was elected a member of the legislative council for the "Home" division, comprising the counties of Peel and Halton. He continued to sit in the council until it was abolished by confederation, after which he was raised to the senate. In December, 1869, he became a member of the privy council, and entered the Macdonald government as secretary of state, remaining in that office until the fall of the government in 1873. In 1872 he framed and carried through parliament the Public Lands Act of that year, and subsequently organized the Dominion lands bureau, a department of government entrusted with the management of the lands acquired in the North-West, chiefly from the Hudson's Bay company, a department which is now controlled by the Canadian minister of the Interior. On the return of the Macdonald government to power in 1878, Senator Aikins resumed the portfolio of secretary of state, exchanging it two years later for the office of minister of inland revenue. Since 1882 he has been lieut.-governor of the province of Manitoba and district of Keewatin.

To a representative of THE COLONIST Governor Aikins stated that his trip to the coast was one of pleasure. From the little he had so far seen of Victoria he was pleased with it. It had a solid, substantial look about it, and had a most charming situation. It was his intention to remain several days and visit all places of interest. Referring to the disallowance of the Manitoba railway to the boundary, the governor said that this action was anticipated, but it was still the intention of the provincial government to proceed with the work. They had let a contract to energetic men, and a strong endeavor would be made to finish the line this year.

Winnipeg was advancing in prosperity. The city had been wonderfully improved in the way of streets, sewerage, light, etc., and this had been an incentive to the erection of many handsome blocks. This year numerous fine structures were in course of construction, and evidences were apparent that the city was in a state of healthy progress.

The prospects for Manitoba were never brighter. A much more extensive acreage had been sown this year than ever before, and the weather had been specially favorable to the growing crops. The season had been wet and this was a guarantee that they would not be troubled by early frosts. It was estimated that there would be a surplus crop of six or seven million bushels, and at 50 or 60 cents per bushel this meant the circulation of a large sum of money, which would be the means of placing a great number of the farmers in a much better position than formerly.

Governor Aikins was delighted with the beauty of the Canadian Pacific route, and spoke highly of the grand work that had been accomplished in building the road through the mountain passes. He considered the province had a great future before it in the development of its timber and mineral resources, but thought its people should be a little more energetic, and instead of importing fruits and vegetables should have a surplus to sell to the dwellers of the country east of the mountains.

FREIGHT CHARGES.

The New Tariff in Force on the Pacific Division of the C. P. R.—Extensive Reductions Made in Local Freight.

Replying to a communication from the provincial government re freight and fare rates charged on the Canadian Pacific railway, the provincial secretary on Tuesday last received from Mr. Van Horne, general manager, a reply, enclosing a schedule of freight and passenger rates adopted by the company for British Columbia. We reproduce in this issue the freight tariff, showing the various classes, and the new and old charges to all points on the line of railway on the Pacific division. The local passenger tariff was reduced some time ago to five cents per mile.

It needs but a comparison of the old and new rates to show that the company have made very important reductions in their freight charges, from fifty to ninety per cent., and, although they have not yet been placed in the hands of shippers, it is almost certain that the new tariff will meet with a favorable reception. In his letter to the government Mr. Van Horne states that "it has been and will continue to be the policy of the company to make special concessions from the regular tariff rates for the purpose of encouraging manufactures, or any special industries or special business."

The new rates of freight charges will be doubly welcome to interior merchants, who have all along been crying out for cheaper freights, and as the new tariff will undoubtedly continue permanently in force, it will create confidence in the fact that it is the intention of the C. P. R. to meet the wishes of the people as far as they can in making the charges on freight as reasonable as possible. The company are to be congratulated on the course they have pursued in regard to railway rates, and they will undoubtedly reap a large benefit, not only in the increase of local freight traffic but also in securing from shippers a greater proportion of the through freight than has been their lot during the past several months.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

H. M. S. Caroline arrived in Esquimalt last evening from Tacoma.

The new sidewalk on Dallas road above the government buildings is a vast improvement on the old one. The hill which was a great obstruction to pedestrians has been blasted away, leaving a low and continuous walk.

A social will be given at Oliver's Hall, Denny's block, Broad street, to-morrow night. F. H. Bernstein's orchestra will be present.

Mr. John Howard was seen driving about the city yesterday afternoon. He is gradually recovering from the stroke of paralysis.

The decision of the police committee in the enquiry into the case of Officer Hoosan who was suspended was reserved.

The road to the outer wharf has recently been macadamized, but Jumbo has failed to connect and the consequence is that hackmen find the road very hard on their horses and carriages. As the road is used in preference to others the council should attend to the matter at once.

We are requested to state that this is the last day for tenders for the brick addition on Yates street.

Pendray & Co. have shipped a consignment of soap to St. John, N.B.

A MUSICAL TREAT.

The New York Philharmonic Club to Give a Season in Victoria.

Mr. C. H. Dittman, manager of the New York Philharmonic club, arrived in the city yesterday, and has made arrangements for the club to give two concerts in the city, on Saturday and Monday evenings, July 9th and 11th. This is the first time that the organization have left New York city, where they are all well-known in musical circles as artists of the first rank. It is unnecessary to impress upon those of our readers who have been fortunate enough to listen to the delightful concerts given by this and other similar clubs, the rich musical treat that is in store; but we can assure those who have not heard such concerts that there is no music so entrancingly pleasurable as that which will be rendered during those two evenings. That our music-loving people will turn out and give the club a generous reception there is no doubt. The New York Herald speaks of them as follows:

"The Club is composed of a sextett of musicians who have obtained special prominence as soloists in the best musical circles, and, as a result, their services afford a most delightful evening to those who can appreciate a high class of chamber music admirably interpreted by these well-known players. There was at no time the least variation of one common idea—there was no lack of consistency or want of delicacy in the phrasing in a single instrument; all seemed guided by but one mind, and from first to last it promised to be as it was, a triumphant conclusion to the programme.

The instrumental portion of the concert concluded by the Beethoven Septett in E flat (opus 20), which was marvelously well played. The sentiment of the great master seemed to be infused into all the players and the noble composition was given with an earnestness that lent a glow to the entire programme, and fittingly brought the Club's delightful season to a most creditable conclusion.

"The gentlemen have now played together so long and frequently that there is scarcely a musical subject within the compass of their instruments which they do not illustrate with a degree of art that makes them peers of any similar clubs in America. They have thus contributed much to the progress of polite musical education in our midst, and have aided largely in fostering a taste for the classic numbers of the master composers. They have also exercised a rare discrimination as to the exact measure of the popular want in this direction, and as a general thing presented programmes so varied and yet instructive, that our best citizens have been glad to attend their soirees in large numbers.

CUSTOMS MATTERS.

TO THE EDITOR:—In my last I adverted to the excessive customs duties imposed by the recently amended tariff, and their generally oppressive character in view of our peculiar geographical position. I also pointed out the dangers incurred by spasmodic changes of tariff, and moreover, the aggravating obstructions and annoyances which beset our importers on this side in the course of their business with the customs department.

The recent visit of Inspectors Wolff and McMichael will have doubtless enabled those officers to represent to the department the feeling so widely existing amongst commercial men in this respect, and it is to be hoped that the department of trade and commerce recently established or about to be established by the government, to supersede the department of ministers of customs, will bring about changes so long and urgently required.

The Canadian Journal of Commerce has this to say on the subject:

"The vexatious and annoying disputes between mercantile houses and the customs authorities which disturbed the business world last year will have a better chance of being settled amicably by a minister charged with the care of commercial matters than if brought before a minister of customs, who would look upon it only from a customs point of view. If the new minister will only devise some means by which the present system of custom house work can be rendered less complicated and vexatious, and more swift and simple, he will fully justify the action of the government in establishing his office and will earn the gratitude of every merchant and importer"
